

MORNING APPEAL

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 20

SILVER PARTY TICKET

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS:

HON. THOMAS WREN,
OF EUREKA.

HON. M. S. BONNIFIELD,
OF HUMBOLDT.

HON. C. C. POWNING,
OF WASHOE.

ALTERNATE ELECTORS:

HON. Geo. S. Nixon, Of Humboldt
HON. Geo. Brown, Of Storey
HON. W. J. Westerfield, Of Lyon

TODAY'S PRIMARIES.

Today the Republicans of Carson will be called on to participate in a Crawford primary to select a ticket for the county election.

The old manipulators, the old gang and the old bosses are going right ahead with their primaries just as if there was really a party left in Ormsby.

The APPEAL suggests that all persons interested in having a new deal in the management of county affairs, remain away from the polls. There will be a regular primary in this county at no distant date, to put up a ticket to be voted for by men who esteem the prosperity of the county above party.

The silver men of Ormsby will organize and put a ticket in the field this fall, which will not be under the thumbs of the county ring, and which every good law abiding citizen can vote with a clear conscience and which will be bonded by no party lines.

THE COURAGE OF CONVICTION.

The following is an extract from the speech made by Hon. Frank Newlands before the Winnemucca convention:

We are told, gentlemen of the convention, that a vote for Weaver means a vote for Cleveland, and that argument conveys, in a sentence, the political view of many. I deny it. We have the assurance of the distinguished gentlemen who heads the People's party recently in Nevada, that if the result in November next proves that he has not the majority in the electoral college, and his supporters constitute the balance of power in the electoral college, that that power will be exercised for and in behalf of silver regardless of his personal candidacy. (Great applause.)

We propose to make this fight on every rampart, in every ditch. (Cheering.)

We propose to go, with courageous hearts, to the polls in November next confident of the election of Weaver and Field. If we are beaten there, and our vote constitutes the balance of power, we propose to transfer the fight for silver to the electoral college and there fight vigorously. (Applause.)

If we are beaten there, then we will transfer the fight to the present House of Representatives, and there give every silver man from the south and the west, whatever his politics may be, to understand that if he supports his present party candidate, committed as both are against free coinage, that he will meet with political ostracism. (Applause.)

This is the sort of talk that stirs men to action. It is a clear blast calling the week kneed to the front. It is the sort of language that the people want to hear. It is the sort of earnestness that will carry the State for silver.

Some Advice to Bartine.

Although Mr. Bartine is not in the habit of taking advice from silver organs he will do well to heed the suggestion of the APPEAL to-day and have the Assembly ticket pledged to him absolutely in order that if it is elected he will own it and it will be where it cannot be handed over to some one else to use.

If Mr. Bartine does not absolutely pledge his ticket he will be unable to do anything with it after the men who are now using him for their own convenience are through with him. Don't forget the advice given to the "jockey of Norfolk" on the eve of battle.

If the Republicans lost 12,000 votes in two years in Maine, how much they have to lose to get left in New York, Michigan, Wisconsin and Illinois.
